

PUBLIC SAFETY BULLETIN

Aggravated Assault at Bus Stop by RLTA

On Wednesday, March 15, 2024, an intoxicated woman approached a group of youths at a bus stop on Malcom X Blvd adjacent to the Reggie Lewis Center. The woman was wielding a knife and pepper spray and tried to start a fight with the group. Subsequently, a man who was with her displayed a gun, threatening the group. The parties are described as follows:

- Black Female, 21 years of age, unkept hair, navy blue hooded sweatshirt, blue scarf, grey leggings
- Black Male, 40-50 years of age, heavy set with a black jacket, red pants, red hooded sweatshirt, dark sneakers.

This incident is under active investigation by the Boston Police Department. Although this is considered an isolated incident, the RCC Community is reminded to pay close attention to their surroundings, and contact Public Safety and/or call 911 if you feel threatened.

