Articulation Agreement Between
Roxbury Community College
And
Massachusetts College of Liberal Arts

September 2010

This agreement is for the purpose of establishing academic articulation agreements between Roxbury Community College and Massachusetts College of Liberal Arts in the following programs:

Associates of Science in Accounting
Bachelors of Science in Business Administration/Accounting Concentration

MCLA guarantees the following privileges to RCC students:

- Admission to MCLA's Bachelor of Science in Business Administration for transfer students with the Associates of Science in Accounting with a minimum of a 2.0 grade point average.
- Admission with junior status, based on completion of the credits listed on the attached equivalency.
- MCLA will transfer RCC's credits as indicated on the attached course equivalency guides.
- MCLA will guarantee housing on campus for those students meeting MCLA's residence hall requirements.

Other conditions of these agreements:

- RCC will advise students to complete the Associate's degree in order to be considered for all privileges above.
- RCC will advise students to carefully select courses as recommended on attached course equivalency sheet in order to ensure maximum transferability of credits and junior status at MCLA.
- MCLA and RCC will review and revise agreements including course requirement changes on an annual basis.
- MCLA and RCC will publish articulation agreements in college publications and course catalogs.
- MCLA will host advising and enrollment sessions on RCC's campus at mutually agreed upon dates. RCC will advertise sessions and advise students to participate in early enrollment sessions with MCLA.
- RCC will advise students to apply by April 1st to ensure space availability for the fall term. Students interested in spring admission should apply by December 1st.
