

Roxbury Community College
English Course Outcome

ENG 232: Children's Literature

Outcome	Activities	Assessment
<ul style="list-style-type: none">➤ Identify works for children➤ with literary merit and positive values➤ Conceptualize the wide range of children's literature in format, reading level and culture➤ Understand age and reading-level appropriate books for specific children	<ul style="list-style-type: none">➤ Use established awards such as Newbery and Caldecott to choose books to read and critique➤ Apply literary standards (plot, character, theme, Artwork, etc.) to selected works➤ Read and critique board, books, picture books, realistic fiction, young adult literature, easy readers, chapter books etc.➤ Investigate books of several cultures➤ Choose books for a collection or particular class or child based on reading level. Choose books related by interest and/or theme.	<ul style="list-style-type: none">➤ Group presentation by a mock award committee.➤ Write book reviews➤ Write a critical essay or analysis of a children's book.➤ PowerPoint presentation reviewing a particular genre, reading level, or cultural background➤ Present a collection of books related by reading level or theme.➤ Write a recommendation for teachers or parents of books on a theme or interest.