

Roxbury Community College
Humanities Course Outcomes

HUM 290: Honors Colloquium

Outcome	Activities	Assessment
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>➤ Understand better how the world works by looking through various lenses provided by different writers and speakers.</li> <li>➤ Have a skeptical academic attitude.</li> <li>➤ Have sharpened critical thinking skills.</li> <li>➤ Be able to integrate various sources into a single research project with an original controlling thesis.</li> <li>➤ Have developed an awareness and appreciation of human rights.</li> <li>➤ Be able to articulate main problems and controversial issues in regard to human rights.</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>➤ Read multiple viewpoints on various problems of human rights.</li> <li>➤ Listen to guest speakers and instructors who take different points of view</li> <li>➤ Critiques of various sources by instructors.</li> <li>➤ Evaluate written sources and websites.</li> <li>➤ Carry out the steps in the research paper assignment: approved topic; working bibliography; reading sources; thesis and outline; rough draft; final draft.</li> <li>➤ Meet with mentor</li> <li>➤ Class discussion of reading.</li> <li>➤ Class discussion with invited speakers on human rights activities.</li> <li>➤ Participation in study group on readings.</li> <li>➤ Informal papers and writing activities.</li> <li>➤ Research paper.</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>➤ Write summaries and responses to readings.</li> <li>➤ Write responses to speakers; post on a blog.</li> <li>➤ Participation in study group.</li> <li>➤ Critique a source</li> <li>➤ Evaluate websites</li> <li>➤ Hand in each step of the project for comments and evaluation</li> <li>➤ Completed research project</li> <li>➤ Participation in discussions.</li> <li>➤ Participation on blog</li> <li>➤ Essay tests</li> <li>➤ PowerPoint Presentation</li> <li>➤ Poster presentation</li> </ul>