

Roxbury Community College
Social Sciences Course Outcome

SSI 113: Caribbean History

Outcomes	Activities	Assessment Tools
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ Recognize historical forces: political, social, economic and cultural, that molded the Caribbean as a whole. ➤ Analyze how these historical forces have impinged upon individuals, socio-economic and racial groups, and the different societies of the Caribbean islands and nations ➤ Understand and explain the historic-economic relation of the Caribbean to developed Europe, the United States and Russia. ➤ Compare the different Caribbean societies of the last five centuries paying particular attention to the links between the Caribbean region, Black slavery and European-based and organized systems ➤ Demonstrate a basic understanding of the ➤ general characteristics of the region, as well as its linguistic, cultural, racial and political diversity. ➤ Demonstrate improved writing skills 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ Reading ➤ Lectures ➤ Discussions ➤ Small group research ➤ Interviews ➤ Memoirs ➤ Use historical theories and data to argue or develop particular themes 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ Essay ➤ Exams ➤ Quizzes ➤ Short papers ➤ Objective tests ➤ Individual papers ➤ Presentation of historical data